

Creditor pressure?

How we can help

Being on the receiving end of pressure from your creditors can be very stressful and we are here to help.

Are you experiencing any of the following:

- Being harassed for payment
- Receiving overdue letters and demands
- Threatened with legal action
- Bailiffs at the door

Our approach is to view all debt problems as having a solution but it is essential to act promptly as the earlier you deal with the problem, the easier it is to find a successful solution.

We have excellent working relationships with major creditors such as HMRC as well as access to a range of restructuring options.

We can help with:

- Negotiations with creditors
- Reorganising debt repayments
- Negotiating 'time to pay' deals
- Discussions with banks

The above is just a small sample of the help we can provide to your business and you can be confident that the advice we will offer will be practical and specifically tailored to meet your needs.
